VOLUME CIX.--NO. 88. ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 13, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nervine and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

PRINCE DE SAGAN AND MME. GOULD.

Another chapter was added to the story of the affairs of Prince Helie de Sagan and Mme. Anna Gould, who sailed from New York on different steamers for Europe Saturday, when last night, G. G. Netter, of New York, made public a statement given to him, as he explained it, by the prince and intended for publication after the St. Paul, upon which de Sagan took passage, was well out at sea.

Mr. Netter is a personal friend of the prince, and was instructed by the latter with the statement that he and Mme. Gould were betrothed. The statement of de Sagan follows, in part:

"When trouble developed between Count Boni and the countess, I sought to aid them as a friend sincerely interested in their affairs. It was at that time that her friendships were really tested. She stated at that time that she appreciated my efforts very much. Our love for each other began to dawn only after the divorce decree had been entered. Long after the courts had acted, I chanced to call at her home one day, and by one of those intuitive divinations—a meeting of the eyes sometimes brings the knowledge—I knew for the first time that I really loved her and she loved me. It was on the first day of last August that the first word about love or marriage was uttered between us. In the course of a conversation she suddenly said to me: 'Oh! Prince, why didn't I marry a man like you.' I replied that I was afraid I was too old, but she asserted that she did not think so. I had known her well, I had studied her thoughts, her hopes, her inclinations. And, understanding all this, I realized what a good wife she would make and I believed it might lay in my power to make her happy. We became betrothed. Mme. Gould and I contemplated a quiet marriage. When that event has taken place my wife and I will live for some years in complete retirement in some quiet suburb of Paris. There we shall remain until the debts of her former husband are paid. We are marrying, I repeat, for nothing else except that we love each other."

NEW BRITISH CABINET.

Official announcement was made last night of the new British cabinet appointments. They are:

Herbert H. Asquith, prime minister and first lord of the treasury; David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer; Lord Tweedmouth, president of the council; Earl of Crewe, secretary of state for the colonies; Reginald McKenna, first lord of the admiralty; Winston Spencer Churchill, president of the board of trade; Walter Runciman, president of the board of education.

John Morley, secretary of state for India, and Sir Henry H. Fowler, chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, have been made peers, but retain their present offices.

Col. J. E. Seeley has been appointed under secretary for the colonies; Lord Lucas, parliamentary secretary of the war office; F. D. Acland, financial secretary of the war office, and Thomas R. Buchanan, parliamentary secretary of the India office.

Having been fully anticipated in well-informed political quarters, the few changes which Mr. Asquith made in the old Campbell-Bannerman cabinet caused no surprise. There had been some speculation as to whether the new premier would think it well to dissolve Parliament, and he would have been fully justified, in assuming the government under somewhat unusual circumstances, of taking the course of appealing to the country for a new mandate. He has, however, evidently decided otherwise.

POLISH GOVERNOR KILLED.

A dispatch from Lemberg, Austria-Hungary, says that Count Andress Potocki, the governor of the Austrian Polish province of Galicia, was assassinated yesterday afternoon by a Ruthenian student, Mieroslap Sczaynski, while giving an audience to a delegation of students. The assassin fired three shots from a revolver, all of which took effect.

The assassin did not resist arrest. When led through the governor's antechamber he said to the Ruthenian peasants who were waiting for an audience: "I have done this for you."

The assassin's brother, who had been informed of the plan to kill the governor, committed suicide shortly before the murder.

Many Ruthenians have been arrested, but none as yet have been implicated in the assassination. The assassin declares that he thought it his duty to avenge the Poles for the oppression by Potocki's government.

Southern Railway Spring and Summer Schedule.

Southern Railway inaugurates its spring and summer schedules today, April 13th, throughout its entire system. It has been found necessary, for economic reasons, to curtail train service in some instances. Nos. 9 and 10, local trains between Washington, Alexandria and Danville, Va., and Nos 33 and 34, through trains between Washington, Alexandria and Augusta, Ga., are discontinued and the schedules of other trains readjusted and the sleeping car lines augmented to fully meet the requirements of the traveling public. The facilities, however, for reaching the various summer resorts and commercial centers of the Southern States, including western North Carolina, Gulf Coast and Texas points and New Orleans, have not been abridged.

Train No. 35, for Atlanta and New Orleans, passing Alexandria on new schedule, 8.32 a. m., and doing local work from Manassas to Danville, will stop at Alexandria to take on and leave passengers.

The schedules on the Bluemont Branch, points along which are liberally patronized by our Alexandria people, will be adjusted later in the season.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, APR. 13, 1908.

DECLARING that many members had gone "navy mad" when consideration of the naval appropriation bill was resumed in the House on Saturday, Mr. Gregg, of Texas, opposed a great naval programme. He charged that President Roosevelt had an unsettled naval policy, and that he was trying to force it upon Congress. If, Mr. Gregg said, the plea for four battleships was based on fear of a conflict with Japan, the President's course had been peculiar, because, he said, the relations with Japan on December 8, 1906, were more strained, when he asked for one ship, than on December 8, 1907, when he asked for four. The best proof that this government did not anticipate a war with Japan was the fact that the Atlantic fleet had been ordered to return from Pacific waters. There are those in authority in this country who are endeavoring to make the United States a military power to gratify their own selfish ends and ambitions, and if they succeed and an army and navy autocracy is established then the lot of the American civilian will be more unbearable than that of those who live under the monarchies of the old world.

THERE is an element of the republican party which is not satisfied with the action of the republican convention in Lynchburg last week. Announcement is made that each of the ten congressional districts will hold conventions on May 13th, and name two delegates and two alternates to the Chicago convention to be followed on the following day by a convention in Richmond to name four delegates at large and four alternates. It is understood that the voters in each county are to hold mass meetings and name the delegates who are to go to Richmond. There has been very little in republican politics in Virginia for some time and now the possibilities of what can be "earned" by contesting delegates to the Chicago convention are looming up quite prominently and is inciting the cupidity of many a "has been."

MR. PADGETT, one of the democratic members of the House naval committee, pertinently asked: "What's the use of this wild scramble to build battleships, when the navy is 22,000 short of enough men to provide crews for the vessels now in commission or building?" The House has just authorized the enlistment of 6,000 more men, leaving still another 16,000 to be provided for. The personnel of the navy is approaching that of the army in numbers. Does Congress propose to increase it without limit? If not, what is the limit to be? Until these questions have been determined and a purpose of rivaling the British navy has been clearly expressed it might be as well to go slow with laying down new vessels for which there are no crews.

IT has become apparent that nothing will be done before the adjournment of Congress toward strengthening the present law in regard to campaign contributions. Two publicity bills pending before the Senate committee on privileges and elections were considered Saturday without any definite action being taken or conclusion reached. Both provide for full publicity in the matter of all contributions to national campaigns or those at which representatives and members of State legislatures are elected. There is a wide difference of opinion as to just how far Congress can go in the direction of publicity legislation without striking a snag in the constitution or interfering with the rights of a State.

BISHOP ALEXANDER WALTERS, of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, denounces Roosevelt for the president's part in the Brownsville affair. But he will vote all the same for Mr. Roosevelt's candidate, whoever he may be, and will advise his race to do the same when the time comes.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., April 13.

A resolution for a revision of the rules of the House was introduced today by Mr. John M. Nelson (Wis.) a new member and a republican. It provides for a committee of forty-six members to revise the rules and report back to the next session of Congress. In explaining his resolution, Mr. Nelson said: "I and a majority of this House favor the bill putting wood pulp on the free list, but the speaker, with his two republican associates on the committee on rules and the chairman of the committee on ways and means, is able to block any legislation they please, and they are blocking this. Such a situation should be remedied by a revision of the rules." Mr. Nelson declared that the House rules are too autocratic to be in harmony with the spirit of the American people.

Attending physicians today abandoned all hope of the recovery of Thomas McCreary, the New York horseman, recently accidentally shot by Representative Heflin, of Ala., who had an encounter with an obstreperous negro in a street car. McCreary has been suffering from tetanus. Pulmonary trouble has now developed. Death is momentarily looked for. Mr. Heflin, nearly prostrated by the unlooked turn of affairs, has been in close touch with the horseman's physicians since the shooting. His brother of Birmingham, Ala., has been one of the attending surgeons.

Mr. Watson of Indiana, the republican whip of the House, circulated today a call for a caucus of the House republicans on the Aldrich bill. This is in line with the determination of the House leaders to force through the House the Aldrich bill irrespective of what the House committee on banking and currency recommends regarding finance legislation. In the call no date is set for the caucus. The House leaders agreed to call a caucus because the opposition of the western republicans and the democrats might beat the bill unless the westerners are held in line by the caucus pledge.

With a view of determining when Congress shall adjourn, President Roosevelt today arranged a conference for tomorrow night with Representative Watson, of Indiana, the republican "whip" of the House. Watson and many other party leaders favor adjourning May 9. Even a part of the president's programme of important legislation upon which he has set his heart, cannot receive consideration by that date, it is urged. It is understood the president will be asked to modify his programme and permit Congress to get away before June 1.

Out of respect to the late John Vandercook, president of the United Press Associations, every United Press key and sounder was silent at 3 p.m, eastern time, and remained quiet for fifteen minutes.

President Roosevelt has sent a message of condolence to the mayor of Chelsea, Mass., and has placed at his disposal the aid of the federal government, should it be needed.

Senator Daniel has returned to Washington after a two weeks' absence and was in his seat in the Senate this morning. He told a friend today that he feared Bryan could not be elected if nominated and that if any one else was nominated by the democrats many of Bryan's followers would knife such nominee as they did Judge Parker.

Wrought up by the peace speech in the House Saturday by Mr. Burton, of Ohio, hitherto regarded as the House spokesman of the White House, the president is preparing a special message to Congress in favor of four battleships, according to a rumor in the House today. It is hinted the displeasure of the president with Mr. Burton will result in a decided change in the Ohio political situation.

Thomas M. Fields, the local lawyer, sentenced to the penitentiary for the embezzlement of $16,000 of the Washington Beneficial Endorsemen Society funds, must continue to serve his sentence in jail. The U. S. Supreme Court today refused to release him on habeas corpus proceedings.

An amendment to the Aldrich emergency currency bill providing for the use of commercial paper as a basis of emergency banknotes is to be offered as a compromise proposition which may aid in an agreement in favor of the pending measure.

Senator Taylor, of Tennessee, said to a representative of the Gazette this morning that he greatly enjoyed his trip to Alexandria on Friday night last when he lectured there and said his audience was perfectly beautiful.

Mr. Robert N. Harper convicted of violating the pure drug act, probably will be sentenced in the police court tomorrow. He will taken an appeal.

It is reported that President Roosevelt will spend a year after the expiration of his term in traveling abroad.

Senator Clark, of the committee on the judiciary, this afternoon reported to the Senate the committee substitute for all the pending bills to regulate interstate commerce shipments of intoxicating liquors. It provides a fine and imprisonment for evading the prohibition laws.

The races at Bennings will close tomorrow after a successful season.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 13.

SENATE.

Senator Carter from the committee on the District of Columbia, reported favorably this morning the bill carrying an amendment prohibiting betting in the District of Columbia and including the Bennings race track. Senator Gallinger, chairman of the committee, urged speedy action on the bill.

Declaring that one of the most important questions contronting Congress is the housing of the government departments, Senator Scott, of West Virginia today made a strong appeal to the Senate to purchase sites and erect commodious public buildings in Washington.

At the conclusion of Senator Scott's speech the Senate went into executive session to consider the remaining Hague treaties.

HOUSE.

Putting aside for the moment his fight for a "big navy to enforce peace among the nations," Mr. Hobson surprised his opponents in the House today by proposing another "peace movement" in an amendment to the naval appropriation bill "to appropriate $100,00 to promote arbitration among the nations."

Mr. Bartholdt, submitted an amendment to prevent military bands in the pay of the government from competing for pay with civilian bands, arguing that as government bands are paid by the government, they should not be allowed to earn money that might go to civilian bands. Mr. Mudd killed the amendment with a point of order.

Chairman Foss, of the naval committee, offered an amendment to the bill to make naval officers pay correspondence to that of the similar ranks in the army, thus increasing substantially the pay of all navy officers. Against this amendment Mr. Madden made a point of order striking it from the bill.

The House voted down, 44 to 21, an amendment to the naval appropriation bill limiting the price of powder used by the navy to fifty cents per pound.

Following a 10 per cent. reduction in wages, employees of the Southwestern Traction Company in Philadelphia went on a strike today. The line runs along the Delaware river and many small towns and hamlets are practically isolated owing to the tie-up.

With eleven of fishing boats known to have been out on Pelham Bay when the great wind storm struck New York Saturday evening are still missing, the police today fear the loss of life caused by the gale will be much greater, than has so far been reported.

News of the Day.

Treaties for determining the Canadian boundary and regulating the fisheries of the Great Lakes were signed Saturday at the State Department by Secretary Root and Ambassador Bryce.

Several people were killed and many were injured, buildings were unroofed, and trees, signs and weak walls were blown down by a gale which swept over New York, Saturday at a 60-mile-an-hour clip.

The Penrose and anti local option forces won sweeping victories throughout Pennsylvania at the republican primary election on Saturday and Senator Penrose will be returned to the U. S. Senate.

Fifteen-year-old William Stulkey, of Brooklyn, early today shot and fatally wounded his father, John, who was quarrelling with his wife. Immediately after the shooting the boy ran away and has not been seen since. Stulkey is dying in a hospital.

Detectives and the police at Cleveland Park, near Washington, guarding the home of Theodore L. Holbrook, president of the New Washington Brick Company, who has received an anonymous letter threatening his life. The letter stated that unless $100 left at a designated spot near Mr. Holbrook's home by midnight Saturday he might expect an attempt on his life.

Judge Pritchard, of the U. S. Circuit Court, in Asheville, N. C., on Saturday issued an injunction stopping construction work on the South and Western Railway upon that part of the line south of Marion, N. C., where the right of way is claimed by the Southern Railway. The bill is equity, the first shot in the long expected legal battle between Thomas F. Ryan's road and the Southern, was filed that day, and the court fixed Thursday next for hearing an order for permanent injunction.

Governor Hughes was indorsed as New York's republican candidate for president by that party's State convention held Saturday and the four delegates-at-large, with their alternates, elected to the Chicago republican national convention, were instructed to use all honorable means to bring about his nomination. The four delegates-at-large are Gen. Stewart L. Woodford, Seth Low, Frederick R. Hazzard and E. H. Butler. There was every evidence that the Roosevelt element was in control and the proceedings were engineered from the White House. There was no mention of Secretary Taft on the floor of the convention, but his supporters were busy outside, and all the delegates were presented with Taft pamphlets on leaving the hall.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

The manufacturing, tenement and retail business section of Chelsea, a suburb of Boston, was devastated by fire yesterday. The flames spread over more than one square mile of territory, and leveled many of the city's best structures. Late last night four bodies were taken from the ruins.

The fire started at 10:40 a. m. and was not placed under control until 10 o'clock last night, notwithstanding that half of the Boston fire department's strength and steamers from a dozen other cities and towns went to the aid of the Chelsea brigade. The loss up to 10 o'clock was estimated at fully $13,000,000. About 1,500 families are homeless.

The fire originated in the rear of the Boston Blacking Company's works, on west Third street, near the eastern division of the Boston and Maine Railroad and in close proximity to the Everett City line. It is supposed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion in piles of rags. A terrific gale from the northwest, which at times had a velocity of 60 miles an hour, carried burning shingles, embers and myriads of sparks to a score of wooden buildings, most of them of cheap wooden construction. The fire started almost in the extreme southwest section of the city and cut a path to the end of Maverick street at the extreme southeastern end of the city, which borders on Chelsea creek. This point is about one mile and a quarter from the point where the conflagration began. The flames swept through the heart of the retail business section, which was about midway between the two extreme limits reached by fire.

Troops were called out for the purpose of protecting property.

A high wind drove the flames from the rag heaps directly upon the wooden buildings of the Boston Blacking Company, and the buildings were soon a mass of flames.

In the gale shingles, burning paper and oil-soaked rags were flung high into the air and went soaring over the city. Within half an hour the Rosenfelt Bros.' three-story wooden rag factory on Maple street was in flames, as was the Chaplin and Soden Car Company works. Tons of tarred paper stored in the latter factory created a dense smoke, which made the work of the firemen extremely difficult. Soon a dozen factories and cheaper tenement-houses west of Everett avenue were in flames and the firemen saw that they were utterly unable to cope with the conflagration.

The first evidence of the fire on the east side of Everett avenue was when the roof of the People's African Methodist Episcopal Church, on Fourth street, was seen to be ablaze. The services were in progress inside at the time, and the congregation was unaware that a serious fire was raging outside. Some one notified the pastor, Rev. Charles P. Watson. He immediately turned to his people, told them of the danger and advised them to file slowly from the building. Twenty minutes later there was not a vestige of the edifice left.

Heaps of burning embers and a suffocating cloud of dust hurled down across Everett avenue by the gale, coupled with the intense heat, drove the firemen from their posts, and those families nearest the start of the conflagration had only time to rush from their homes and save their lives, losing all their possessions.

Mr. Charles P. Janney, of Leesburg, has been summoned to Pasadena, Cal., by the serious illness of his wife. Mrs. Janney has been in California several months for the benefit of her health.

Mr. R. E. Byrd made a strong prohibition speech in Winchester yesterday. With the local option election to be held Wednesday admittedly close, feeling in Winchester is now at an acute stage.

The democratic primary for the nomination for the mayoralty and members of the council was held in Roanoke Saturday. Joel H. Cutchin was renominated for mayor over L. B. Davis by 385 majority.

The wedding of Miss Effie Blew Dearborn, daughter of Mr. George W. Dearborn, of Amherst, to Mr. Samuel Meredith Garland Wills, of Lynchburg, took place in Ascension Church at Amherst on Saturday.

Judge Waddill, of the U. S. District Court, on Saturday afternoon in Richmond appointed receivers for the East Coast Lumber Company of Boydton and B. E. Cogbill. Cogbill is president of the insolvent firm.

Col. R. F. W. Carter, sixty-one years of age, who lives in Richmond was found dead in Washington on Saturday in his room at the National Hotel. The deceased had been at the hotel since the previous Saturday, and had been attended by Dr. George Ross. Death was due to heart disease.

The heating and power plant of Washington and Lee University was partially destroyed by fire last night. The alarm was given at midnight, and when the firemen got to the building it was enveloped in flames. The damage is estimated at $5,000, partially covered by insurance.

Detectives arrested a negro named Bessley in Lunenburg county Saturday on a charge of having robbed the store of John T. Woods, killed the son of the proprietor and then set fire to the building. There are eight negroes implicated in the affair. Quantities of goods have been recovered by the officers. The crime occurred two weeks ago.

W. E. Merrill, of Richmond, was given a verdict of twenty years in the penitentiary in the Circuit Court of Spottsylvania county Friday night for the betrayal of Miss Hattie M. Dillard, of Fredericksburg, under the promise of marriage. A demurrer was entered by Merrill's counsel, and will be considered by the court. Merrill was bailed in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance.

S. A. McNeal, a lawyer, shot and killed himself as he lay in bed with his wife at their apartments in Norfolk at 5:45 o'clock Saturday morning. Whether the shot was accidental or suicidal is not known. His wife maintains it was an accident. The pistol bullet entered McNeal's head just above the left ear, having been fired from the pistol in McNeal's left hand, he being left-handed.

The birthday of Thomas Jefferson and the eighty-ninth anniversary of the foundation of the University of Virginia is being celebrated at that institution today. James Bryce, ambassador from Great Britain, delivered the Founder's Day address. The Founder's Day exercises occurred at noon in Cabell Hall. The students were given a holiday and marched to the hall, followed by visitors and faculty in cap and gown.

A postoffice inspector on Saturday arrested F. W. Seibert in the Richmond postoffice. The man is said to have been operating a swindling game by advertising in western and northern papers for "Woman for companion to invalid." Thousands of replies were received with stamps for particulars. No reply was made. There are five men in the scheme and they have reaped a harvest. Four have escaped but they will be caught.

Hon. William A. Jones will be the democratic nominee for re-election as representative in Congress from the First Virginia district. Saturday was the last day on which candidates desiring to enter a primary could file such notice with the district committee, and as Mr. Jones was the only one to file such notice he will be declared the party nominee by the committee. Representatives Hay, of the Seventh district, and Flood, of the Tenth, have been informed that the democratic district committees of their districts have declared them the candidates of the party for re-election, no other democrat having announced for the nomination. They are the first Virginia members to be renominated.

ACCIDENT ON TROLLEY LINE.

Five persons were injured, one of them perhaps fatally, and about a score of others sustained minor hurts in a head-on collision of two heavy trolley cars of the new Washington, Baltimore and Annapolis Electric Railway about 12:30 p. m. yesterday.

The collision occured a quater of a mile south of Crownsville station, seven miles from Annapolis, and was between one of the heavy-speed cars, filled with passengers from Baltimore and Washington and running on limited time from Academy Junction to Annapolis, and a local accommodation car from Annapolis for Academy Junction.

The accident was apparently due to a misunderstanding of orders, as the company just effected a new change of its schedule Saturday. The cars met head on and that several persons were not killed outright is considered remarkable.

Dear Sir: Here's the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth:

Devoe takes less gallons for a job than any other paint.

If any one doubts this statement, here's the proof:

The Fire in Chelsea.

Boston, April 11.—Lack of material to feed on and the waters of the Chelsea river this morning checked the march of the fire which laid in ruins more than one-third of the city of Chelsea.

The property loss is estimated at $9,000,000; ten thousand persons are homeless; three dead bodies have been found in the ruins and it is probable that two others have perished; between 200 and 300 are injured, and nearly 100 missing.

The heart of Chelsea, a flourishing city 27,290 inhabitants, with a large majority of its churches and schools and public building and its city hall, was a blackened, smoking mass of wreckage as the sun rose this morning.

It is estimated that about half of the financial loss, or $5,000,000, is covered by insurance. The feature of the disaster is the promptness with which the big insurances agencies of Boston this morning came forward with statements that they were ready to pay the losses in full.

Chelsea is a chartered city of Massachusetts, less than three miles from the heart of Boston. It lies to the northeast and is at the mouth of the Mystic river. Ferries and steam railway connect it with Boston. It was first settled in 1626 as Winnisimet, and was a part of Boston from 1634 until 1638. It was then incorporated as a town.

The city was chiefly residential. It is a prohibition city, operating its own water works.

Illinois Democrats.

Chicago, April 13.—The anti-Sullivan democrats, supposed to have become peaceful and contented, have begun a beating of tom toms as a warning that trouble is ahead for the present democratic national committeeman from Illinois. Tonight a meeting will be held in the Briggs House to ratify the declaration of war drafted yesterday.

Mass conventions in every ward in Chicago will be held to select delegates to the State convention. At the State convention the elimination of 535 Cook county votes will be asked on the test roll-call to determine which delegation is entitled to a seat.

At the national convention at Denver a contest between Sullivan and anti-Sullivan delegates is the last step in the battle as planned.

The date of the ward conventions will be fixed at tonight's conference. The plan was drafted at a meeting held in a closely guarded room at the Briggs House last night. The anti-Sullivan men who called themselves out-and-out Bryanites believe that there would be nothing to it at the Denver convention but Bryan, and that an anti-Sullivan fight will be backed by the majority of the delegates there.

The Lemon Game.

Chicago, April 13.—Two more arrests were made today in connection with the lemon game worked on Edwin Itrich, a Chicago contractor, who dropped $3,000 on an alleged fake fight which the police charge was engineered by Jim Hall, an ex-pugilist of Australia. Hall and three others already have been arrested. It was learned today that the fight was pulled off at Kansas City. Clarence Cass has been identified by Itrich as one of the fighters. The other is believed to have been a "ringer" for John Willie, a fighter of some note. After the men entered the ring in a club house at Kansas City only 2 or 3 blows had been passed when the man supposed to have been Willie spurted a liquid from his mouth and fell to the floor in an apparent faint. The men interested in dropping the "lemon" made a hurried get-a-way. Itrich learned that the red liquid was not blood when he found a bottle, beside. He then started a police investigation.

The Strike in Pensacola.

Pensacola, Fla., April 13.—Militia companies have been arriving here one at a time since yesterday. Six are now on the ground and the strike-bound street car company has already begun a kind of tentative operation of its lines. Not much will be done, however, until more militiamen reach the city or it becomes evident that those already here are numerous enough to keep order.

Mayor Goodman's order for the arrest of every one except officers actually on duty who ventured upon the streets after 10 o'clock last night had the effect of checking riotous demonstrations.

The non-unionists from New York, considerably battered from their fights with strike sympathizers late last week, stick close to the car sheds except when called on to take out cars, which are operated under heavy military guards. Fifteen were so seriously hurt as to be unfit for work for some time.

Explosion at Powder Mill.

Chicago, April 13.—Heavy property damage resulted from the explosion of 4,000 pounds of blasting and smokeless powder early today at the Aetna Mills of the Dupont Powder Company at Miller's Island, Ind. An early statement was that several workmen had been killed, but it was later learned that no one was killed or injured by the blast. Residents of the village half a mile from the scene were thrown from their beds by the concussion, while windows were shattered for many miles around. The twenty men of the night shift on duty at the mills had just left for their homes.

The explosion is the second which has wrecked the plant in the last few years, the last one killing seven men.

Fight with Anarchists.

Rome, Apl. 13.—Anarchists from all over Italy desperately resisted an attempt by the townspeople today to drive them from Rapallo, a leading winter resort. A fierce fight ensued in which many were hurt. The police came to the people's aid in suppressing the riot and the reds were finally routed. The anarchists had called a convention in the town to protest against the hospitality which the inhabitants had recently extended to visiting royalties, but the attack on them occurred before much progress had been made with the speeches or adoption of resolutions.

Laboring Men to Oppose Taft.

Concord, N. H., April 4.—An appeal to labor men for bitter war on Secretary Taft to prevent his nomination and to defeat him at the polls if he becomes a candidate, was sent to labor leaders throughout New England today by President Charles J. French of the New Hampshire branch of the American Federation of Labor.

The Market.

Georgetown D. C., April 13.—Wheat 89-91.

Trouble With Strikers.

Wilmington, Del., April 13.—The cars of the Chester Traction Company, the Marcus Hook line, and the Darby and Wilmington, Del., system, were tied up tight today when all the employees of the company, controlling these lines went on strike. When it came time to run the cars out this morning, the strikers gathered around the car barn and prepared to prevent the cars from leaving. Strikebreakers from out of town brought to the car barn in a car from their headquarters in an old hotel in Chester were attacked by the strikers. A fusilade of stones shattered the windows of the car and the men within had narrow escapes from serious injuries. Several were struck by the stones and cut by flying glass, but none was seriously hurt. Badly frightened, the men left the car when it arrived at the barn and disappeared. The strikers are serious in their struggle and trouble is expected when the first attempt to start a car is made.

Miners and Operators.

Toledo, O. April. 13.—With the wage scale virtually agreed upon, indications are that the conference between the miner operators of the central competative field and the Mine Workers of America which will convene here at 10 a. m. tomorrow will result in a return to the interstate agreement between the two forces. This means prolonged peace in the bituminous coal fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and probably Illinois.

Wheeling W. Va., April. 13—Ninety-four thousand miners will return to work in Ohio and Western Pennsylvania, at least, Monday morning of next week and probably Thursday morning of this week." The above statement was made by Thomas L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America today at his home in Bridgeport, O.,

Suspected of Murdering his Wife.

New York, April 13.—Mrs. Isaac Lieberman, described by her neighbors as the most beautiful woman in the Bronx, was found dead in bed today in her home with a dagger wound in her neck and another in her breast. The police pronounce her death a murder, and Lieberman is under arrest on suspicion. He conducts a shirt waist store a block from his Bronx home. Lieberman went out as usual today to open his store. Shortly after returning home at the breakfast hour, he rushed out of his apartment holding a bloody dagger in his hand, crying some one had murdered his wife. He called in a policeman who discovered wounds in the neck and breast.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 13.—Outside of the traction stocks and American Ice the stock market was generally heavy and prices at the end of the first hour showed losses ranging from fractions to a little over a point. Most of the selling in the leading railroad and industrial stocks was by room traders.

THE STREETS

Referring to the local item in the Gazette of the 11th instant, regarding the suggestion that before any other visitors are invited to our city to inspect the vertrified brick streets that certain unsightly holes in King street be filled, I would also offer a suggestion. Now my object in writing this article is not to criticise, but to call attention to some other bad places in some of the most prominent streets. I shall only mention at this time the condition of the crossing at the intersection of Prince and Patrick streets. The flag stones at the northeast corner of these streets have sunken out of position and during rainy weather the water stands in pools almost ankle deep, and pedestrians, especially ladies, are compelled to walk out in the street to keep from ruining their skirts, and it does seem to me with a very small amount of money and time these unsightly, as well as disagreeable places, could be repaired, and thereby make it more agreeable for our own citizens, and also keep down some of the criticism of our visitors.

A CARD.

Alexandria, Va., April 13, 1908.

I ask space through the Alexandria Daily Gazette to say to my colored republican friends of Alexandria city and county and throughout the Eighth Congressional district of Virginia, that after careful consideration I have decided to step down and out of any further political agitation as to "who is who" in the management of the republican party of the Eighth district. I notice in the press that another State and district convention has been called for May 13 to give the colored republicans a chance to elect delegates to Chicago. I advise the colored republicans of the Eighth district not to contest the recent convention held at Sarepta Hall. That convention elected two tried and representative republicans—former Postmaster J. L. Crupper, and Mr. Diener, one of Culpeper's leading merchants. It is time for colored republicans to be conservative in action. Wait the action of the Chicago convention. It looks like the nomination of Secretary of War Taft. It may be President Roosevelt (against his will). It may be Senator LaFollette, of Wisconsin. The candidate named at Chicago I predict his election. Senator Foraker is a brave man. He has never bolted a republican nomination, and when the national convention names its standard bearer, judging from his record, he will be found foremost in the ranks for his party. Colored men be steady. It would be disastrous to the future of the colored people of this country for a republican president to be elected without the aid of the colored vote. Colored men go slow. You need all the white friends you can secure in all the parties. Individually you will succeed; collectively, never.

Yours, sincerely,

MAGNUS L. ROBINSON.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniament. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

FIRES YESTERDAY.

The alarm of fire about 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning was caused by flames suddenly appearing on the roof of a brick tenement on the east side of Washington street, near Franklin. Before the fire could be subdued an adjoining house became ignited and both structures were partially destroyed. The occupants of the houses lost most of their effects. A defective flue in a joint chimney between the two houses is supposed to have started the fire. The roofs of both houses were completely destroyed and the interior of the houses was badly damaged. The houses are the property of the estate of the late John Seaton, colored. It is said the loss is covered by insurance. They were occupied by Fannie Johnson and Daniel Hopkins, colored.

A slight blaze occurred at the residence of Mr. W. H. Wood, 106 south St. Asaph street, while the other fire was raging. The blaze was subdued by a chemical extinguisher. A gasoline stove is said to have been responsible for the fire.

During the progress of the first fire four sections of the Columbia's hose burst, and after the apparatus had been returned to the house an inspection was made of all the hose belonging to the company. It was found that five sections of new hose and one of old had been badly damaged by acid which had been thrown on it by some malicious person or persons. The new hose was purchased six months ago, during which time it has been used about one hour.

The hose of the Reliance Company was tested today. They stood a pressure of 235 pounds. The Columbia hose were tested this afternoon. Eight hundre and fifty feet of new hose were tested at the extreme northern end of Washington street before Chief Petty and the Fire Wardens. Only one section burst under the pressure. The Fire Wardens will be officially notified of the injury to the hose. Some people believe that acid was accidentally cast upon the hose by workmen recently engaged on the building. Others, however, believe the acid was thrown by some malicious person.

PALM SUNDAY.

Yesterday was Palm Sunday and a beautiful April day. The sun shone brightly and the skies were blue and the air just crisp enough to make one want to be out of doors. Many of the fruit trees are now in full boom and their fragrance lent additional charm to the day. Many people were on the streets while many more enjoyed strolls in the country. Spring hats and spring suits were in evidence, many holding that a bright Palm Sunday in hand was worth two rainy Easters in the future, so decided to take no risk in donning their new regalia.

Palm Sunday ushers in the most solemn week in the Christian calendar. Christ's triumphant entry into Jerusalem with the background of His passion and death were the theme of sermons in several of the churches, while "The Palms" was rendered by many of the choirs. At St. Mary's Church in the morning palms was blessed and distributed and this in many shapes was wore during the day by men and women alike. An able sermon was delivered at the night services by Rev. Father Rankin, of the Apostolic Mission House, Washington. At Christ Church in the morning Bishop Gibson preached an able sermon and confirmed a class of five. At Grace Church at night the bishop preached again and confirmed a class of sixteen. Rev. F. R. Boston, of Warrenton, occupied the pulpit at the Baptist Church at both services. Interesting services were also held at Immanuel Lutheran Church where fifteen children were confirmed, the edifice being beautifully decorated for the occasion. The services in the other churches were according to Saturday's announcements. The congregation at all were large. At night the moon made the earth almost as light as day and many remained on the streets till a late hour.

SMALL FORTUNE FOR RARE STAMP.

Philatelists throughout the world will be greatly interested in the sale in Philadelphia last week of the famous Alexandria, Va., Postmaster's Provisional 5-cent stamp on buff paper, owned by General Thomas J. Shryock, of Baltimore, in whose possession it has been since 1894, when he purchased it from W. F. Lambert, of Alexandria.

Three months ago Percival Parr'sh, a stamp expert of this city, discovered the only known Alexandria stamp of this sort on blue-gray paper and sold it for nearly $3,000 to George Worthington, of Cleveland, who now owns probably the most valuable collection of postage stamps in America. He is also the purchaser of the Shryock buff paper specimen.

It is supposed that the amount paid was greater than that received for the blue-gray specimen, as it was known that both Lord Crawford, of England, and Baron Ferrari, of France, were active competitors for its possession. Mr. Parrish sold this last specimen also. He declines to state the exact amount it brought, although the money paid must have been a small fortune.

This last sale gives Mr. Worthington three of the four specimens known to exist, and they have commanded the largest prices ever paid for United States postage stamps. They are all of the dates 1846-7. After 1847 the government issued all postage stamps.—[Phila. North American.

CARGO OF PHOSPHATE ROCK.

The iron steamship Wilhelmina arrived at this port yesterday from Port Tampa, Florida, with a cargo of 3,000 tons of phosphate rock consigned to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company. This is the second cargo of phosphate rock brought to Alexandria by the Wilhelmina during the past five months.

We are brim full of spring novelties for man, woman and child. See our line of low shoes. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mr. Henry R. Elliott, a former resident of this city, died in Washington yesterday. His death was due to paralysis—the second stroke, the first occurring while the deceased lived in Alexandria several years ago. Mr. Elliott was a native of Washington. He was about 60 years old. The deceased leaves four children—Dr. H. R Elliott, of Washington; Mr. Ross T. Elliott, of this city; Lieutenant O. B. Elliott, U. S. army, now in the Philippines, and Miss Emily Elliott, who is also in the Philippines.

Lena Jackson, colored, died at her home, on Oronoco street, near Fairfax, yesterday.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Minnie L. Padgett, who died early Saturday morning at her home, 300 north Alfred street, took place from Immanuel Lutheran Church this afternoon. Rev. J. J. May, pastor of the church, officiated.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Edith Loder, who died in Baltimore a few days ago, took place this afternoon, from 1003 Montgomery street. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bell, of Del Ray.

ACCIDENTS.

Mr. Jacob K. Swartz, a well-known resident of this city, was run over Saturday afternoon by a mail wagon near Pennsylvania avenue and 12th street northwest Washington, and sustained serious injuries. The vehicle passed over one leg, fracturing it, and his head was severely bruised before the driver, George Beverly, could stop the horse. His condition was such when he reached the Emergency Hospital that the surgeons feared he had sustained a fracture of his skull and their examination showed this to be true; also that two ribs on the left side had been broken. Mr. Swartz lives at 216 south Fairfax street with his wife and daughter. He is employed in the Washington office of Siegel, Brown & Co., lumber dealers, and was getting ready to return to his home in this city about the time the accident happened. The many friends of Mr. Swartz in this city regret to hear of his misfortune.

The high wind of last Saturday violently closed a gate at the Southern Railway depot in this city. The gate struck Mr. James Javins, who is employed at the yard, and he was knocked down and painfully injured. Mr. Javins is now in his 88th year.

WITNESS FINED.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of Henry Gaddis, colored, who had been arrested by Officer Young charged with drawing a pistol and threatening to shoot his wife. It was also alleged that Gaddis terrorized his wife by picking up a cuspidor which he threatened to hurl at the woman. The evidence in the case showed that a negro named Henry Armstrong, an alleged fortuneteller and who claimed to ward off the terrors of conjuration, played a conspicious part in precipitating the family jar. Armstrong had been living in the house with Gaddis and his family, and on one occasion, suspecting that conjurers had been at work on the premises, he dug up portions of the yard in order to counteract the "spell." It was also shown that Armstrong was engaged in fortunetelling. Gaddis was dismissed and Armstrong, who had been a witness in the case, was fined $10 for conducting business without a license and disorderly conduct.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

The docket was called and cases set.

John J. Nugent vs. Floyd Calloway, attachment; dismissed by order of plaintiff's attorney.

Pulman & Co. vs. Albert Barbour; dismissed by order of plaintiff's attorney.

Alison C. Jenkins vs. Pott's Commission Co.; judgment for plaintiff for $86

In re estate of William Watson, lunatic, order confirming commissioner's report and directing sale of real estate.

The will of the late John Murphy was admitted to probate. He leaves to his widow, Mahala Murphy, one half of a lot on the east side of Alfred street and to his son, Travers Murphy, the other half.

The will of Patrick Henry Desmond, deceased late of this city, was admitted to probate. He leaves his entire estate to his wife, Mary Teresa Desmond, who qualified as administratrix with the will annexed.

DISTRIBUTING THE PALMS.

At half past ten o'clock yesterday St. Mary's Church was crowded in a manner which it had probably never been since the the elevation of Rev. Richard L. Carne from the diaconate to the priesthood on the first of November, 1892. There were no doubt many more people there, as the church has been much enlarged since that time. The occasion was the distribution of the palms, which occurs annually. The officiating priests were the pastor, Rev. Henry J. Cutler, who preached the sermon and directed the distribution, and Rev. Thomas A. Rankin, of Richmond, who said the mass. He has a very fine voice and, as he sang several times when the choir did not, was much admired.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Henry Washington, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Mary Pierson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

A white man, charged with stealing chickens from Jones's Point, was dismissed. This case had been postponed from time to time during the past two weeks.

Henry Gaddis, colored, charged with threatening to kill his wife, was dismissed, and Henry Armstrong, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and with practising fortune telling without a license was fined $10.

Tans are the real thing for spring wear. We handle the swellest line in town. Our motto, high grade, low prices. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Mr. Henry Bashford, a former resident of this city, was the victim of a fatal accident in Washington this morning. Mr. Bashford, who had been a lineman, was at the top of a telegraph pole adjusting wires, when a heavy current passed through the wires he was handling, shocking him to such an extent as to cause him to fall to the street. He was instantly killed. The deceased leaves a widow and children. Mr. Bashford was well known in this city where he was at times engaged in constructing telegraph and telephone lines.

FLOWER THIEVES.

Complaint is made by lot owners in St. Mary's cemetery of the depredations of flower thieves. It is said that some of the offenders are known and that steps will be taken to have them arrested. Flowers, in many cases, are allowed to remain upon mounds but a short time. As soon as those who have placed them on the graves leave the cemetery some vandals approach and carry them away.

A guard arrived here today from Richmond for the purpose of conducting John Penn, John McCuen and Frank Wilkins, white, and John Lewis, colored, to the penitentiary. "LILY SHIP" DUE TODAY.

Bermuda lilies in abundance for the closing week of Lent arrived in New York this morning on the steamship Bermudian, which this year, as it was last, will be the "lily ship." One of the largest importers—whose consignment will reach 60,000 stems—says that the price will run from $3 50 a box of six dozen short stem cuts up to $7 for stems with a longer cut and containing from two to four blossoms a stem.

While the hothouse plant—Bermuda and Calla lilies—is in evidence at Easter time in pots, the demand for the cut Bermuda lily is as great as ever this year. The great majority of the stems brought to New York are used in the decoration of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal church altars.

Get DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve. It is especially good for piles. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Shake off the grip of your old enemy, Nasal catarrh, by using Ely's Cream Balm. Then will the swelling and soreness be driven out of the tender, inflamed membranes. The fits of sneezing will cease and the discharge, as offensive to others as to yourself, will be stopped when the causes that produce it are removed. Cleanliness, comfort and renewed health by the use of Cream Balm. Sold by all druggists for 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

FOR EASTER

Books, Booklets, Bibles, Episcopal and Catholic Prayer Books, Hymnals, Book Marks and Easter Post Cards.

The assortment is a very large one and must be seen to be appreciated.
